

Foreword	2
Abbreviations
Chapter I
Competition and competition policy	6
1. Economic competition	6
1.1 Introduction	6
1.2 Types of markets	8
1.2.1 The perfect competition.....	9
1.2.2 Monopoly	11
1.2.3 Oligopoly	15
1.3 The S-B-R Model (structure-behavior-result).....	18
1.4 Functions of market competition.....	21
2. Theories of competition, scientific schools.....	24
3. Regulation of competition, antimonopoly law	39
3.1 The heart of the competition policy, state interference in the economy	39
3.2 Levels of regulation of competition: national, integrated, global competition law	43
3.3 Branches of antimonopoly law and regulatory instruments	48
4. Conclusions	51
Chapter II
General provisions of EU antimonopoly law.....	54
1. The European Union: treaties and institutions.....	54
2. The key characteristic features of European law	61
3. The EU antimonopoly policy	64
3.1 The fields, goals and history of the EU antimonopoly policy.....	65
3.2 The relation of the EU antimonopoly policy to other EU policies.....	78
4. Sources of the EU antimonopoly law	83
4.1 TFEU Provisions	83
4.2 Common law principles.....	88
4.3 Regulations.....	84
4.4 Other secondary sources of law	89
4.5 Case law.....	92
4.6 International treaties	93
5. Operation of antimonopoly law	93
5.1 Sectoral Operation	93
5.2 Personal (and, simultaneously, substantive) operation.....	98
5.2.1 Antimonopoly regulation of commercial entities	98
5.2.2 Antimonopoly regulation of government agencies – EU member-states.....	114
5.3 The principle of territorial influence	115
5.4 Operation in time	116
6. The definition of the relevant market.....	116
6.1 The definition of the relevant market: the Commission’s communiqué.....	119
6.1.1 The main principles of the market definition.....	121
6.1.2 Data used to define the market	122

7. The relation between the EC antimonopoly law and the antimonopoly laws of the EC member-states	125
8. Conclusions	128

Chapter III

Agreements restricting competition: TFEU, Art. 101	131
1. Introduction	131
2. Elements of factual circumstances of Art. 101, part (1)	133
2.1 Commercial entities and their unions	134
2.1.1 Commercial entity	134
2.1.2 Unions of commercial entities	141
2.2 Practices violating Art. 101, part (1).....	146
2.2.1 Agreements between commercial entities	147
2.2.2 Concerted market practices	154
2.2.3 Decisions to merge economic entities	165
2.3 The anticompetitive goal or the result of actions	168
2.3.1 What kind of competition is protected by Article 101?	149
2.3.2 The goal or the result	172
2.3.3 The evaluation of positive and negative effects	182
2.3.4 Restrictions that do not restrict competition.....	188
2.3.5 The de minimis rule	195
2.4 Effects on trade between the EC member-states	198
3. Article 101, part (2): nullity	202
4. Article 101, part (3)	205
4.1 Four conditions for exemption.....	205
4.2 Examples	209
4.3 The application of Article 101, part (3) – procedural issues	217
4.4 Group exemptions.....	221
5. Types of restrictions of competition governed by Article 101.....	224
5.1 Possibilities for classification.....	224
5.2 Cartels	225
5.2.1 General characteristics	225
5.2.2 The price cartel.....	233
5.2.3 The market division cartel.....	237
5.2.4 The exchange of information between competitors	240
5.2.5 The quota cartel, limitation of production.....	247
5.3 Cooperation of competitors	251
5.3.1 Cooperation, in general.....	251
5.3.2 Joint R&D.....	252
5.3.3 Joint production and specialization.....	257
5.3.4 Joint procurement	262
5.3.5 Joint sales	264
5.3.6 Standartization agreements.....	266
5.3.7 Environmental protection agreements	273
5.3.8 Trade exhibitions.....	274
5.3.9 Cooperation in the area of information	276

5.4 Vertical agreements	281
5.4.1 Evaluation of vertical restrictions in the EC competition policy	281
5.4.2 Advantages and disadvantages of vertical restrictions.....	287
5.4.3 Legal evaluation of vertical restrictions	289
5.4.4 The enforcement of Article 101, part (1)	290
5.4.5 The group exemption of vertical agreements.....	293
5.4.6 Case-by-case evaluation of vertical restrictions.....	301
5.4.7 Specific vertical means of realization and vertical restrictions	302
5.4.7.1 The maintenance of the re-sale price	302
5.4.7.2 Exclusive sales and territorial protection.....	303
5.4.7.3 Restrictions of procurement	305
5.4.7.4 Selective systems of sales	310
5.4.7.5 Restrictions related to sales of products through the Internet	315
5.4.7.6 Franchise agreements (commercial concession agreements).....	317
5.4.7.7 Exclusive supplies	317
5.4.7.8 Restrictions related to retail chains	318
5.4.7.9 Sales of transportation vehicles and adjacent subsequent markets, services.....	320
5.4.7.10 Vertical agreements related to Intellectual Property	324
6. Conclusions	334

Chapter IV

The abuse of one's dominant position on the market: Article 102 of the Treaty	336
1. Introduction	336
2. Relations between Article 102 and other antimonopoly norms	342
3. Examples of defining the relevant market.....	347
4. The dominant position on the market	358
4.1 The concept of the dominant position.....	358
4.2 The criteria of the dominant position	364
4.3 Joint (collective) dominance	371
5. Abuse of dominance	376
5.1 Abuse, in general.....	376
5.2 Where does abuse take place?	393
5.3 The price policy	394
5.3.1 The monopoly price.....	399
5.3.2 Dumping and predatory prices.....	401
5.3.3 The price squeeze.....	406
5.3.4 The price discrimination	407
5.3.5 Selective price reductions	414
5.3.6 Conditional preferences	315
5.4 Closing the market by exclusivity agreement	427
5.5 Tying and bundling	428
5.6 Evasion	434
5.6.1 Refusal to deal	434
5.6.2 The essential facilities doctrine	439
5.6.3 Intellectual property and licenses	443

5.7 Abuses related to the secondary market	453
6. Exemptions from Article 102.....	454
7. Conclusions	463

Chapter V

The application of Articles 101 and 102.....	465
1. Introduction	465
1.1 The use of antimonopoly law in public and private interests.....	465
1.2 Legal effects of breaching Articles 101 and 102	467
1.3 The reform of law enforcement.....	470
2. Sources of law	470
3. The procedures conducted by the European Commission	476
3.1 Institution of proceedings	476
3.2 Provisional remedies	489
3.3 Evidence	489
3.4 Procedural safeguards.....	496
3.5 Commission's decisions.....	512
3.6 The participation of antimonopoly agencies of the EC member-states in the Commission's procedures	516
3.7 Conducting sectoral investigations	517
4. Remedies for breaching Articles 101 and 102 of TFEU	519
4.1 The antimonopoly remedies	519
4.2 The guidelines of the Commission's penal policy	520
4.3 Commission's notices determining the amount of a fine	531
4.4 Review of the Commissions penalties.....	543
4.5 The Commission's policy of liability reduction and completion of negotiations	544
5. The antimonopoly activity of the European Court of Justice.....	553
6. Law enforcement problems at the level of EC member-states	560
6.1 General Issues	560
6.2 The cooperation of the Commission with the antimonopoly agencies of the EC member-states	567
6.3 Articles 101 and 102 in the procedures of the Department of the antimonopoly regulation of the economy.....	571
6.4 The application of antimonopoly law by courts of the EC member-states.....	574
6.4.1 The application of antimonopoly law by courts: advantages and disadvantages.....	575
6.4.2 Certain aspects of the application of antimonopoly law by judges of the EC member-states	577
6.4.3 Harmonization of procedural rights?	581
6.4.4 Commission's notice on cooperation.....	582
6.4.5 The application of law for personal advantages in Hungary	584
6.5 Cooperation and unified application of law in the EU	585
7. Conclusions	591

Chapter VI

Control over economic concentration	593
---	-----

1. Economic and legal grounds	593
1.1 Economic grounds for mergers and acquisitions	593
1.2 Sources of law	596
2. The operation of the EC regulation on mergers	602
2.1 Concentration.....	602
2.2 The EU scale	611
2.2.1 The Brussels “single window” system	611
2.2.2 Transfer	620
3. The evaluation of the EU-scale concentration transactions	624
3.1 Introduction	624
3.2 The relevant market.....	632
3.3 Review of implications on competition on the market.....	640
3.3.1 Overview.....	640
3.3.2 Possible effects of horizontal mergers on competition.....	647
3.3.2.1 Non-coordinated effects	647
3.3.2.2 Coordinated effects.....	657
3.3.2.3 Other negative effects on competition	667
3.3.3 Potential competition as an offset	667
3.3.4 Protection of effectiveness	668
3.3.5 Protection of the defeated firm	671
3.3.6 Assessment of associated restrictions on competition.....	673
3.3.7 Resolving problems of restriction of competition by assuming obligations	673
4. Procedural rules	681
5. The judicial review	697
6. Conclusions	701
 Chapter VII
Government measures restricting competition: the “useful effect” (effet utile) of the antimonopoly law	704
1. Interconnected norms.....	704
2. The contents of the case law norms	704
2.1 Development of the case law.....	704
2.2 The contents of the useful effect (effet utile) doctrine.....	718
2.3 The use of state power by commercial entities	722
3. Issues of law enforcement	725
4. Conclusions	728
 Chapter VIII
State trade monopolies: TFEU, Article 37	729
1. Introduction	729
2. The history of enforcement of Article 37.....	731
3. The notion of state trade monopolies	732
4. Obligations of the EU member-states arising out of Article 37	738
5. Application of Article 34 to state trade monopolies.....	743
6. Exemptions from Article 37.....	747
7. To be or not to be?.....	752

8. Exercise of rights, issues.....	755
9. Conclusions	756

Chapter IX

Exclusive rights, state enterprises, social services: TFEU, Article 106.....	758
1. Introduction	758
2. Article 106, part (1) – obligations of the EU member-states	758
2.1 The problem of close ties between the state and privileged enterprises	760
2.2 Economic entities governed by Article 106, part (1).....	763
2.3 The scope of liability of the EU member-state under Article 106, part (1).....	770
2.4 Orders used together with Article 106, part (1).....	774
2.4.1 Articles 3, 10 and 12 of the FTEU	774
2.4.2 The rules of competition – Article 102.....	776
2.5 Relations between the state remedies and the behavior of the commercial entity	790
2.6 Economic freedom and Article 106, part (1).....	791
3. Social services and antimonopoly law	794
3.1 Different legitimization possibilities.....	794
3.2 Article 106, part (2): social services as an exemption	798
3.2.1 Exemptions, in general	798
3.2.2 Services of general economic importance	799
3.2.3 Enabling state remedies	807
3.2.4 Impossibility to provide services of general economic interest.....	808
3.2.5 Damages to trade development.....	812
3.2.6 The burden of proof	812
3.3 To be or not to be.....	815
3.4 Contractual novelties	821
4. Article 106, part (3): issues of application of law.....	821
4.1 The institutions taking part in shaping law and politics.....	821
4.2 Directives related to Article 106, part (3)	825
4.3 Decisions related to Article 106, part (3)	828
5. Conclusions	834

Chapter X

Control over state aid pursuant to antimonopoly law.....	837
1. Introduction	837
1.1 One may or may not?.....	837
1.2 Prohibitions of permissions in practice	840
1.3 Sources of law	842
1.4 The brief history of the antimonopoly control over state aid in the European Union ...	849
1.5 Control over state aid in the international trade	854
2. The notion of prohibited state aid	856
2.1 Difficult to define	856
2.2 Preferences granted to commercial entities.....	860
2.3 Preferences granted from the resources of a EU member-state.....	866
2.4 The criteria of selectiveness.....	872

2.5 Distortion of competition.....	875
2.6 Effects on trade between the EU member-states	883
2.7 The classification of the state aid.....	884
3. The incompatibility of the state aid with the internal market.....	888
3.1 Special sectors of economy.....	888
3.2 Compensation for the provision of social services	890
3.3 For what one would need a permission – Article 107, part (2)	892
3.4 What may be permitted: part (3).....	895
3.5 The exclusive role of the Council	903
4. Certain key rules of state aid.....	903
4.1 State aid to small and medium businesses	905
4.2 The EC Directive on state aid provided to save and restructure distressed firms.....	906
4.3 The rules of management of the financial and economic crisis.....	910
4.4 The regional aid.....	913
4.4.1 The Commission’s policy	913
4.4.2 The regional aid and its recipients	914
4.4.3 Rules of regional investment aid.....	920
4.4.4 Terms of functional aid	923
4.4.5 Support for the establishment of small businesses	923
4.4.6 Maps of regional aid.....	925
5. Procedures to control state aid.....	926
5.1 The distribution of the roles and the rules of the game	926
5.2 The importance of being transparent	927
5.3 The Commission’s procedures	930
5.3.1 The existing and the new aid.....	930
5.3.2 Examination of applications for the state aid – the Commission’s consent	931
5.3.2.1 Illegal and incompatible aid, a prior notice requirement and suspension ...	932
5.3.2.2 Preliminary examination of applications for aid	938
5.3.2.3 Formal procedures under Article 108, part (2)	942
5.3.3 Examination of unapplied aid.....	945
5.3.4 Control over the existing aid under Article 108, part (1)	946
5.3.5 Sanctions	948
5.3.6 Procedural rights of third parties	956
5.4 The role of the European Court of Justice	956
5.4.1 Disputing the Commission’s decisions	956
5.4.2 Special procedure regarding violations - Article 108, part (2)	959
5.5 The application of law at the level of the EC member-states.....	961
6. Conclusions	967
Certain key court decisions.....	970